GET CONNECTED & DO BUSINESS

network | access | voice | profile

As the oldest and largest chamber of commerce in Ireland, we represent the business interests of 1,400 companies across the Greater Dublin Area, making us the perfect partner to help your business grow. Providing a blend of networking, support services and access to Government we aim to increase the prosperity of Dublin and our members. The Dublin Chamber of Commerce is the city's most powerful and enthusiastic advocate, playing a role in major developments affecting Dublin city and its environs.

sme membership

Boosting your business could be a lot easier than you think with a little help from the Dublin Chamber of Commerce. If your business priorities include networking, access and profile then the Dublin Chamber is for you! As an SME member you are entitled to one representative who will be the main point of contact for us and for your fellow members. You can change your contact at any time. All staff are members under your company membership so everyone benefits.

network

Membership of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce provides you with three key networking opportunities:

- (A) Business After Hours – networking evenings for all staff, informal and formal networking provided, also the opportunity to avail of a 1 minute speaking opportunity. These events are free of charge to members.
- (B) Business Breakfasts – with pre-speaker networking opportunities
- (C) InterTradeIreland Network and Getwork – run in partnership with the Northern Ireland Chamber of Commerce and Industry and InterTradeIreland. This series gives members the opportunity to sell services to the procurement decision makers from large companies.

Networking opportunities are also available at our annual feature events - Annual Dinner, AGM Dinner, Sporting Dinner and Christmas Lunch.

Entertain your clients at these pivotal events and connect with other businesses!

access

Membership of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce provides you with access both to members and to decision makers in Government. Access to fellow members is facilitated by our many events, by the membership directory and also through our publications. Access to key decision makers is facilitated by our events programme and through involvement with our policy committees and working groups.

voice

The Chamber acts as an independent voice for business in Dublin City and it's environs. We support your business by lobbying Government to ensure Dublin has the best environment to conduct business.

Through the work of our committees and working groups, we address issues such as transport and infrastructure, waste management, business costs, tourism and inward investment and help you to engage with Government on the many issues that affect how you do business.

profile

You can profile your business at our ever popular Business After Hours events where you can enter a draw to have a one-minute speaking opportunity to an audience of 150 businesses. Avail of free publicity for your business through our publications - Business Ireland and Dublin Business. Over 2,500 business people in Dublin will read your company profile!

member2member offers

The Dublin Chamber of Commerce strives to not only help you get more business but also to save you money on the cost of services your business needs. Our Member2Member exchange allows you to receive and offer discounted services when trading with other members.

testimonials

"For MoreSoft, being a member of the Chamber is an invaluable method of meeting new prospects and securing new business, the social orientated networking events are organised with professionalism that is second to none."

Alison Moriarty, Business Development Manager, MoreSoft IT Group

"Membership of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce affords business and networking opportunities with the wider business community. No matter what the discipline or size of one's business, the Dublin Chamber facilitates platforms to enhance business exchanges, dealings and connections in Dublin which my company highly recommends."

Carol Ann Casey, Managing Director, CA Consulting

"Chamber membership is essential to Digicom for several reasons. The ability to meet and interact with individuals from big and small businesses continues to prove very beneficial. Premium events held regularly provide a forum to meet and entertain clients and relate with fellow business professionals. Chamber also keeps me abreast of the ongoing changes within our City and helps assure me that the voice of Dublin business does not fall on deaf ears."

Greg Clarke, Managing Director, Digicom Ltd
